

CLAIRE NESS

BIOGRAPHY

Claire is a professional stiltwalker with fabulous costumes. She also does walkaround and short comedy floor acts as a clown and other funny costumes with hilarious antics. Claire's experience extends to performing many times at fairs, festivals, and corporate events.

"Hilarious!"

"Unabashed!"

"Fearless Ness!"

"Provides the butter under the heart."

Being born and bred in the wild Yukon, Claire Ness naturally gravitated towards show biz. After gracing such productions as 'Hair', 'Guys and Dolls' and 'Laughter On The 23rd Floor' and gaining her diploma in Comedy Writing and Performance at Humber College, Claire ran away to work with Zero Gravity Circus and Circus Without Borders. As well as her gymnastics and dance background, Claire has trained with renowned physical theatre teachers Sue Morrison, Adam Lazarus, and Michael Kennard. Whether it be clown, bouffon, acrobatics, dance, stand-up, singing/poetry, stilt walking, or acting, Claire is delighted to share pieces of her strange soul.
